Suspects:

You and your friends have been accused of a terrible crime. Detectives are going to question each of you about your whereabouts and activities at the time that the crime was committed.

Your guilt or innocence will be determined by the agreement of your answers among yourselves.

You have a short time to agree with each other about ALL of the details of where you were together, and what you were doing at the time of the crime.

Write the details of your agreed story on the back of this sheet. Do NOT show your writing to the detectives.

Detectives:

You are going to individually question a group of suspects about a terrible crime that witnesses said they saw them commit.

First you need to agree with your fellow detectives on which questions to ask, then you will interview each suspect separately and record their answers on the back of this sheet. Compare answers to see if any of the suspects give conflicting answers.

RULES

1. Suspects must answer all questions. "I don't know" and "I can't remember" are not acceptable answers.
2. Detectives must act responsibly and respectfully towards suspects.
3. Suspects must be interviewed out of earshot of other suspects.
4. Neither suspects nor detectives may show their papers to the other group.
